Welcome to Seaward Leisure Boats

Seaward based in Cowes, the UK's boating capital, build some of the most desirable pilot-style leisure boats to be had. When choosing a boat for our changeable weather conditions there simply is no better choice – just ask the many satisfied pilot and commercial users around the world. When that pleasant sunny day turns to rain and wind and high seas you'll be glad you're in a Seaward! Each boat is available as standard or can be built to your personal specification, all boasting Seaward's unsurpassed quality of build and seaworthiness.
